Make-up classes

Make-up classes may be arranged for missed classes (up to a maximum of 2 per term). Parents must inform administration at least 12 hours in advance of the missed class. We cannot guarantee that the student will attend the make-up class at the same venue or that it will cover specific content missed.

Credits

If there are any dates in a term that students will not be able to attend, and if parents inform our administration in advance of the beginning of the term, a maximum of 2 credits will be allocated to the student's account and taken into consideration as credits in the total fees calculation. Where credits have been allocated, no further make-up classes are available for the missed classes.

Uniform

All students are required to purchase and wear Creative Collab uniform, including T-shirt, leggings, and dance shoes, when attending all classes. This creates a sense of teamwork as well as facilitates effective movement and technical skills.

Productions and events

Students who participate in productions, events, festivals, and exams outside of their regular class time may be required to pay an additional fee for these activities, as well as for items such as costumes and props. These events are optional and subject to separate enrolment. Please note that once a student is enrolled, your child becomes an important part of the cast, and we cannot provide refunds for production/exam/festival fees for any reason.

Inclement weather and other enforced closures
